Corps. During the Q&A portion of the workshop, I asked the naive question “How do you pay for it?”, and that’s how I first found out about the scholarship.

One week later, I applied to the HYC scholarship fund. I was so blessed to receive the financial support.

The sense of gratitude I feel towards the people who were generous enough to support me is truly overpowering. You enabled me to finally take a look outside the ivory tower we call the first world, and gifted me one of the most impactful experiences of my life. Seeing actual poverty, being able to teach the children of Phnom Penh, handing out food to HIV-patients, getting to know the amazing disciples there, and visiting the temples.

All of that would not have been possible without your generous support! Akun jann! (Thank you so much!)”

HOPE worldwide

Do not let finances stop you from applying to a HOPE Youth Corps or an international volunteer corps! We are offering generous scholarships to teens, students, and families that want to serve together.

The Scholarship Fund Committee takes into high consideration young people from low income families, male participants, first time applicants, outstanding young leaders, or those with special skills that can benefit our programs when awarding scholarships.

This is what one of the 2017 scholarship recipients, Sebastian Buck, from Berlin, Germany, had to say after going on the Cambodia Volunteer Corps this past Christmas:

“The first time I heard of a HOPE Youth Corps was at a New Year’s Retreat in Switzerland when I was 15. Madison Stringer shared her experiences in the Philippines, and the idea of going abroad to serve in a third world country immediately intrigued me. The second I got home, I told my parents about my new dream just to be brought back down to earth, since they explained to me that we simply couldn’t afford it. 2.5 years later, I attended the ICMC East in North Carolina and went to a workshop on HOPE Youth

Thank You Ed and Deb Anton!

We have been blessed this whole weekend. First we had Deb Anton speak at our Women's Day. She did an awesome job!

Today we have the opportunity to hear her husband, Ed Anton. Ed and Deb have been instrumental in leading the ACR (American Commonwealth Region) churches. They also serve as the lead couple for the Hampton Roads Church in Virginia. Ed is a gifted preacher and teacher and we have a real treat listening to the message he will preach.

Please take the time to express your gratitude to the Antons for sharing their lives with us this weekend as well as the service they provide for God's Kingdom. We are blessed to have them.

This scripture reminds me of the Antons.

"I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy (the Antons) to you soon, that I also may be cheered when I receive news about you. I have no one else like him (them), who will show genuine concern for your welfare. (Philippians 2:19-20)
